The information you know is not enough to describe one of them. 5

4. You learned how to customise your clothes to make them look unique and represent your own personal style.	You personalised your design (fabric paint, pockets, patches, different fabrics, and dyeing). The result is amazing, and it represents your own personal style. 20	You personalised your design (fabric paint, pockets, patches, different fabrics, bleaching and dyeing). However, your design doesn't describe your own personal style. 15	You didn't follow all the tips to customise your clothes. You didn't use fabric paint, and you didn't add pockets or patches. The result can improve with some changes. 10	You didn't follow any tips to customise your clothes. You didn't include specific vocabulary. The result is very poor. 5
5. You created a fashion catalogue, and you shared it with the rest of your classmates.	You showed a very good use of the vocabulary (clothes, materials, patterns, order of adjectives) and you included second-hand items. The result is amazing. 20	You showed a correct use of the vocabulary with very few mistakes and you included vague references to the materials and pattern. The result is correct. 15	You showed some mistakes when using the vocabulary (order of adjectives), and you only included some clothes. You should revise them. 10	You showed many mistakes when using the vocabulary (order of adjectives) and you didn't include any second-hand items. You should include second-hand items, the materials and pattern appropriately. 5
