

Take after = be similar to someone in your family, either in personality, interests or appearance