

CHECKLIST

I can organise my work and divide it into steps.

I have decided on the type of story for my comic, its setting, its characters and its plot.

I have created a character and found similarities with a classmate.

I have divided my story into beginning, middle and end.

I have transformed my story into a comic strip, including speech bubbles, captions and onomatopoeias.

I have drawn the characters and the settings in the panels.

I have filled in the presentation card.
